Keeping the Finance Corps Family Together

Well, we are only about 8 months away from our 2021 RAFINO reunion. This year's reunion, as most know, will be in Charleston, South Carolina. Anyone who has been to Charleston knows it is beautiful, picturesque and just an amazing place to visit. For those who have not been there, you are truly in store for a wonderful experience. The following documents will provide a compilation of information on the reunion as well as to assist you in registering for this event.

Dates: The reunion officially begins Wednesday, 6 October and goes to Sunday, 10 October. Early arrival will begin on Tuesday 5 October for those that would like to get there early.

Registration: Opens 8 February 2021, on the RAFINO website at <http://www.RAFINO.org>. Our website is where you will register for the reunion, select any tour excursions you are wishing to participate in, choose your meal for the banquet, and volunteer to assist with registration or other activities (e.g. banquet set-up, place cards, etc.) during the reunion.

The Registration Fee structure is as follows:

$180.00 / person: Life Member

$200.00 / person: Active Members (dues current, in good standing)

$220.00 / person: In-Active Members (dues delinquent, not in good standing)

Registration covers the Hospitality Room (drinks – coffee / tea / water; open bar periods; snacks, and pastries; opening night reception; banquet, transportation to the memorial service in honor of our fallen Finance Warriors and family members; and administrative fees.

Note: Hotel registration for lodging is separate from your RAFINO registration. A separate hotel link with a reunion group code will be available on the website.

Weather in Charleston during October:

The weather in Charleston in October is ideal for visiting this historic city in South Carolina as temperatures remain warm but with less of the humidity than during the summer months. Afternoon temperatures are mostly in the low 80s with early morning lows in the lower 60s. Temperature can briefly reach 90 or more.

What to wear in Charleston during October:

Weather-wise, Charleston in October is more like summer but without the oppressive humidity. Summer clothes work well here, with perhaps a sweater or light jacket for the cooler evenings and early mornings.

What to wear... when:

Reception: Casual

Hospitality Room Activities: Casual

Excursions: Casual / Comfortable Clothing (weather dependent)

Banquet: Men: Business Casual or Military Uniform; Women: Cocktail Attire or Military Uniform

Reunion Check-In: Hospitality Room Crowne Plaza

Tuesday – 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM Tuesday

Wednesday- 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

Late arrivals are will be taken care of as promptly as possible.

Early Arrival Group Dinner (Tuesday Evening): for those arriving on Tuesday, we will have a group dinner planned (location TBD). Participants are responsible for their meal selection and payment (approximately $20 / person). Please sign up on the RAFINO website if you are wishing to participate when you register.

Hospitality Room: The reunion hospitality room will be located in the Crowne Plaza. It will provide a central location to accommodate reunion attendees. The opening night reception will be hosted in this room.

Additionally, morning snacks and coffee / tea will be available during reunion days beginning on Wednesday and concluding on Sunday morning. The hospitality room will be the “Hub” of all activity – a place to gather and socialize.

Reunion Reception: Will be held in the Crowne Plaza (Hospitality Room) from 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM. We will have food, beverages (alcoholic and non-alcoholic), and activities. At the reception we will be serving a variety of buffet-style hors d'oeuvres.

RAFINO Business Meeting: Will be held in the hospitality room, Saturday morning 9 October beginning at 9:00 AM. Attendance is highly encouraged for all members and their spouses. We will be conducting voting for board positions. There will also be a financial report, membership report, and Reunion 2022 discussion.

Memorial Service: Will be held Saturday morning following the RAFINO business meeting. There will be a motor coach available to take participants to the site for memorial service at 11:15 AM. The location will be a short drive to Riverfront Park. River Front Park is home to the Greater Charleston Naval Base Memorial, erected in honor of the countless military personnel and civilians that served the United States and the Greater Charleston region while the Charleston Navy Base was operational. The Memorial is the only location in the United States that displays both the Lone Sailor and the Homecoming statues. The memorial service will recognize and honor our departed finance warriors since our last reunion.

Reunion Banquet:

Will be held in Crowne Plaza Ballroom Saturday evening 9 October beginning at 6:30 PM. There will be a cocktail hour beginning at 5:30 outside the ballroom. Recommended dress is business casual (or military uniform) for men and cocktail attire (or military uniform) for women. At 5:45 PM we will begin with the Receiving Line. At approximately 6:25, we will sound “Call to Mess” signaling everyone to move to their tables in the dining area. This will be followed by the posting of the colors, the invocation, opening remarks, and toasts. Dinner will be served, followed by a short break. After the break, we will cut the honorary Reunion birthday cake, have guest speaker introduction / remarks, a toast to our fallen, the benediction, and finally the retiring of the colors. The posting / retiring of the colors will be conducted by the U.S. Army Finance and Comptroller School Color Guard under the direction of our Finance Corps and Regimental Command Sergeant Major, CSM Dennis Dodge. There will be a seating chart displayed, so members will know their respective table numbers. Designating table seating will be made available during registration or during the day 1 and 2 of the reunion.
